

DEEP South — AND — DOWN under

A Print Exchange Between:

ABOUT

Atlanta Printmakers Studio is pleased to announce the 5th Biennial Print Portfolio Exchange. We are excited to partner with Firestation Print Studio in Melbourne, Australia whose members will also be participating in the exchange. Both Atlanta Printmakers Studio (APS) and Firestation Print Studio (FPS) are not-profit organizations that support and promote the art of making original prints.

The theme of this year's exchange is Deep South and Down Under in reference to the organizations geographic regions. Whether your print focuses on the Deep South or Down Under, we invite all APS and Firestation Print Studio members to participate in the exchange.

EXCHANGE

- The exchange is open to all members from each organization. Not a member??... simply join or renew your membership to participate.
- Prints must use at least one traditional printmaking processes such as intaglio, lithography, relief, serigraphy, or any combination of the above.
- Mixed media such as digital prints, cyanotype or photographs is acceptable if combined with one or more traditional printmaking processes listed

- above. No reproductions will be accepted.
- Each participant will receive a custom designed portfolio containing a commemorative cover sheet and 10 randomly selected prints. Prints will be returned by October 1, 2016.
- APS and Firestation Print Studio will each keep one set of prints for their archives. APS will also keep one set for exhibition and fundraising benefiting APS. Prints will be shown in Atlanta and Australia. Exhibit details will be announced at a later date.
